ID	Constraint
CON-1	At least 1000 users should be supported on the website
CON-2	Website must be accessed on a web browser. The hardware does not matter (Desktop, Laptop, phone, etc.)
CON-3	A relational database server that was already existing has to be used. The database and should be the only thing being hosted on the server.
CON-4	Website should have a load time of 2 seconds; however, timings may vary due to the user hardware, internet connection, bandwidth, etc.
CON-5	Backend of site must properly update UI with accurate information given by database server
CON-6	User transactions must be given with either credit or debit.